

INVITING BUSINESS ASSOCIATES

“I recently partnered with a company that is positioned to take advantage of the next trillion dollar industry—the health and wellness industry. Their products are cutting edge. They are making a significant difference in many lives including mine. They pay top dollar to their top people. They are looking to expand in this area. They are looking for part-time and full-time self-starters so I thought of you. Would you be interested?”

“Has anyone ever talked to you about Kyäni? I’ve been watching you for some time. You have fantastic people skills and could do very well in my business. The best part is you can start part-time and earn an excellent income. Shall we meet and I’ll give you all the details?”

“If you had a job with no boss, no overhead expenses, and could work your own hours at home with an excellent income would you be interested?”

“Let me ask you a question off the record. If you could start a part-time business that could grow to replace your current income, would you be interested?”